MILLARD P. STRICKLER
M. A. University of Virginia
A. B. Hampden-Sydney

The 1951-52 year is now history, but fond memories will linger on for years.

A sincere desire for success and happiness goes to all members of the graduating class of 1952. You, your fellow students and faculty have worked hard to make this book a memorable one by depicting the true life of the high school student. Many other accomplishments for your Alma Mater merit praise. May the other classes represented in this book be inspired to strive to become even better students and leaders than those who have gone before.

Congratulations to the Senior Class of 1952 upon your many achievements and may God bless you in whatever you undertake in life.

"Brains, Patience, Labor"

Well here it is gang! Your 1952 Oceana Annual and we hope you are as proud of it as we are.

This book took a great deal of hard work on the part of the staff, the Seniors, and especially the sponsors; Mrs. Owens and Miss Loving, but the completion gives us a satisfied and successful feeling.

The first of the year was spent soliciting ads from Norfolk, Virginia Beach, and Princess Anne with most of our requests answered cheerfully.

During the campaign, everyone pitched in and worked constantly on the dummy and had it completed by December.

We hope you enjoy this book as much as we have enjoyed compiling it. May you look back with pleasant memories to "The Year 1952".

The Student Cooperative Association of Oceana High School seeks to coordinate the various student activities of the school as a whole, and also, endeavors to promote the high ideas of citizenship, cooperation and general improvement on the part of each member of the student body.

Our task is a difficult one, but under the direction of our officers and the representatives of the various home rooms, which together make up our high school council, we have made some progress towards realizing the true worth and value of our organization.

Among our many activities this year we have sought to carry out the following aims:

1. To aid in pre-school registration.
2. To cement the common ties of friendship—loyalty—and a sense of belonging between the old and new students.
3. To draw up a workable monatorial system in order to aid the teachers in problems of supervision in halls, cafeteria, grounds, and laboratories.
4. The drawing up of a student handbook for the school.
5. To promote three school dances during the school year—at Christmas—Easter—Commencement.
6. To work out a traffic system for the school that will promote the safety of all school children.
7. To keep all bulletin boards up to date and attractively arranged throughout the school.
8. To promote parent visitation night in Jan.
9. To sponsor the sale of ice-cream, school buckles, pennants, beanies, etc.

We hope to promote our program here at Oceana as well as over the state in behalf of the welfare and the advancement of Virginia boys and girls.

"TISH"

Mary Roberts Rinehart's side-splitting, action-packed comedy "Tish" opened its curtains March 21st for the annual senior class performance. From the ovation of laughter it was clear from the beginning that it was a hit.

Mary Rinehart's most popular character "Tish" Carberry, a middle-aged spinster, blunt, outspoken, and entirely lovable, just can't seem to stay out of trouble. Lizzie and Aggie, her boon companions, must simply follow as Tish falls into one problem after another. Through car wrecks, bandits, landlord troubles, and love, the audience was carried with chuckles and roars on every route.

"Best Foot Forward"

Look at this group of good-looking boys and girls. Yes, they are intelligent, for they are the members of the Oceana Beta Club. Good character, achievement, leadership and hard work are the requirements of The National Beta Club. This year the club consists of twenty-seven members.

We have a business and social meeting each month. At the business meetings we discuss ways of making money and then we have a program. At the social meetings we play games and have refreshments.

We have been attending the convention for quite a number of years, and last year we were proud to have one of our members, Nita Aldridge, elected State Secretary.

The officers are as follows:

President	Nita Aldridge
Vice President	Allen Culverhouse
Secretary	Mary Bowden
Treasurer	Mary Lee Ward
Historian	Peggy Wood
Sponsor	Miss Ruth Gornto

The 1951-1952 publication of the Lighthouse is printed every six weeks period by the editors and staff. Our twenty-eighth edition began the latter part of November. Due to high costs of printing the staff decided to mimeograph the paper this year and are delighted to say it proved quite successful. The staff tried to bring a newer and more interesting paper to the student body, building up some activity each month.

The staff consists of the pupils of Oceana. The editor is an outstanding senior who has a lot of interest in his school and a talent to write. The assistant editor is chosen by the editor and teachers who sponsor the paper to assist the editor and to become editor when he becomes a senior.

The section editors are also usually seniors and also have a talent for writing. There are representatives from each grade who serve as reporters.

The paper consists of editorials, school news, sports, and the latest word in school gossip.

The Spanish Cavaliers of 1951 set up three main objectives for this year. They were: (1) To further our interest in Spanish and Spanish speaking countries. (2) Have more spoken Spanish in class. (3) Have units of Spanish legends, customs, and the history of Spain.

The Spanish Club gave a very successful Pan-American Day program. The club was very pleased with the result.

"Say It With Music"

BAND

This year we think our band has done outstanding work. They played at the Oyster Bowl, where they were rated tops, at Smithfield, Hampden Sydney, the annual Potato Festival in North Carolina and, of course, at our own Ocean Bowl where they presented us with difficult drills and routines. This year a number of the band members entered the State Solo Contest and all received excellent ratings. The band naturally appeared at all our football games adding color and boosting morale. The band is under the direction of J. A. Cantwell.

OCEANA CAVALIERETTES

The Oceana Cavalierettes were started this year by Mr. Cantwell, our band director. He wanted to add something new to the band and thought this was a good idea.

Miss Sterling, our gym director, was asked by Mr. Cantwell to select about twelve or sixteen girls for try-outs. The following were selected: Sally Baines, Sylvia Baggett, Lois Gimbert, Katherine Jager, Delores Manges, Betsy Nelson, Barbara Marshall, Joan Pruden, Ruby Tomlinson, Jean Tomlinson, and Grace Vakos. Sylvia Baggett and Joan Pruden were chosen as captains.

The Cavalierettes have gone with the band on various trips which were most enjoyable. They have gotten high recognition for their outstanding work, thanks to Mr. Cantwell.

OCEANA MAJORETTES

The Oceana Band was led again by the majorettes, resplendent in new uniforms of white satin and gold trim.

Betty Murden blew the whistle as Drum Major this year and Patricia Hitchings twirled her baton as mascot.

The other girls in the corp were Peggy Bishop, Frances Duke, Edith Mary Darden, Dorothy Meeks, Myra Craddock, Ellen Godfrey, Ambra Rau and Maty Lyon McKenny.

"Readin' n Writin' "

Beowulf didn't start this, for this is Oceana's own Literary Club? We're planning big "doings" this year with Charlottesville as our goal. Our poetry and prose readers, spellers, debaters, and public speakers are working hard; but, since all work and no play isn't fun, we have parties once in a while. Everyone will agree that the floor of the skating rink is mighty hard.

"No Business Like Show Business"

Under our new sponsor, Mr. Barnhill, the Oceana Dramatic Club started the year with eager enthusiasm. We elected our officers; they are Nita Aldridge, president; Herman Medlin, vice-president; Carolyn Meachum, secretary; and George Aldridge, treasurer.

Almost immediately we began rehearsing a play "The Flattering Word." It was presented to the student body and was a great success. Next we produced a drama, "Echo," this too, was a colorful success.

Our Christmas program was thoroughly enjoyed by all who saw it. After the holidays we put into rehearsal two one-act plays. These were "I'm a Fool" and "Marriage Proposal". "Marriage Proposal" went to the district literary competition meet. Our motto was "Charlottesville Bound."

They say all work and no play makes even high school students dull fellows. The members of the Oceana Dramatic Club are not dull; we held a Shipwreck dance in the gym; the slogan for this was "If he won't drag you, you drag him."

No matter how nervous Mr. Barnhill was, how long we practiced, how we worried about stage-fright, or how our southern accents sounded on recordings, it was a great year for dramatics.

The Glee Club achieved many things this past year, since there was an operetta held in the spring and of course, the Christmas and Easter programs that were given. A new attraction was added this year; a girl's quartet and a mixed quarter also.

The first half of this year we had a new glee club instructor, Mrs. Jones, and in February Mrs. George Aldridge came to us. Under her wonderful leadership, with the help of our very capable officers, the glee club became a club of which our school was proud.

"Home Is What We Make It"

The F. H. A. was organized at Oceana on October 14, 1951 and became affiliated with the State and National organization. In October we elected as president, Doris Harcum; vice-president, Mary Lee Ward; secretary, Janet Fentress; treasurer, Barbara Henley; reporter, Nancy Malbon. During the F. H. A. week our club presented a program for the assembly, decorated the bulletin boards and Home Ec. room. Then came Christmas and one needy family felt the spirit of the F. H. A. through a White Christmas. Later on in the year we held several social functions for the faculty and parents.

"Head, Heart, Hands, and Health"

The Oceana Senior 4-H Club has been very active this year. They have used their heads, hearts, hands, and health to make their community a better place in which to live.

We have carried all of the usual projects plus one new one "Rural Electrification". Our members have entered exhibits and won prizes in every contest offered.

With our new Sponsor, Miss June Lyon, and the return of our leader, Mrs. J. W. Brinkley; we have had a fine club year in trying to make our community a better place to live in.

The Pep Behind The Team

The school year 1951-1952 started out with a bang for the cheerleaders. The three girls left from last year were: Catherine Meeks, Juanita Aldridge and Doris Harcum. They decided to take turns as captain and it worked unusually well. The student body had a hard time deciding who the other seven were going to be, but the following were selected: Barbara Henley, Lillian Booker, Charlotte Scarborough, Jo Ann Russell, Marian Dudley, Frances Martin and Carolyn Meachum. Their fighting spirit helped to spur the team on to victory.

We Had Pep Too

This year the JV's were beginning to feel like old-timers at cheering. They elected Janet Fentress as their captain, and she did an excellent job. The others that helped her cheer were: Frances Speight, Anita Cruser, Anita Myers, Vivian Widgeon, Helen Hayman, Geraldine Midgette, Mabel Fimple, JoAnn Hughes and Katherine Jagger. They are all looking forward to next year and maybe becoming varsity cheerleaders.

"Our Side"

The Monogram Club was reorganized this year and plans were laid for a big year. All people who have earned monograms for sports were invited to join.

Officers were elected and they were: Joe Fail, president; Doris Harcum, Vice-president; Johnny McCloud, secretary; Frank Allen-treasurer; and Nita Aldridge, reporter.

The club named its objectives: to let only people who deserve it wear the "O", to hold several dances; and to work and co-operate with the Athletic Association.

Under the capable sponsorship of Mr. F. E. Taylor, the club has done much to encourage athletics.

KNEELING: George Aldridge, Perry Chambers, Charlotte Scarborough, Jimmy Darden, Royce Byrd, Frank Allen, Julian McDanials, Eugene Farrar.

THE YEAR 1952

"The Big Team"

The Oceana Cavaliers under the coaching of Tommy Tomko ended the season with five wins, four defeats and one tie. The one tie came from Mathew Whaley who went on to win group two conference. Two of the four defeats came from group one schools; Norview and Craddock. The other two defeats were upsets by Great Bridge and Kempsville.

The annual Ocean Bowl game was played between Oceana and Kempsville. Both teams were after this game because it involved two trophies and the Princess Anne County championship.

The Cavaliers were favored by one T. D. and they showed it in the first minutes of play. They also made a couple more threats but, fell short of scoring. In the second half the tide changed in favor of Kempsville. The Blue Devils caught Bourdon behind the Goal-line for their first two points and in the same quarter a 25 yd. run off tackle made the score 8 to 6. The Cavaliers coming back very strong with 20 to 35 yd. runs by Marshal, but due to a series of penalties we never crossed the goal-line. The final score Kempsville 8. Oceana 6.

"The Little Cavaliers"

THIRD ROW: Billy Harman, Gary Bryan, Billy Meachum, Bobby Hewitt, Walter Gresham, Bruce Murphy, Dickey Barcroft, T. J. Davis, Louis Riggs, Eddie Earnes, K. O. Barco.

SECOND ROW: Jimmy Craddock, Billy Hughes, Louis Voliva, Horace Flora, Charles Ammons, David Chrisman, Kenny Baggett, Louis Kitchen, Buddy Meeks.

FIRST ROW: Daniel DeHart, Garland Skinner, Jackie Gardner, Billy Hall, David Priest, Morris Jester, Billy Marshall, Joe Bishop.

Coaches:
Tarrah and Taylor

This year's J. V.'s were inexperienced and very light; but under the coaching of Mr. Taylor and Mr. Tarrah they finished the season with four wins and one loss.

The four wins were from Norfolk Academy and Kempsville. The wins from Kempsville gave the J. V.'s the county championship.

The one loss came from Great Bridge: the J. V.'s were the under dogs and came out on the losing end; but they were able to hold the score to a very low margin. Great Bridge 7. Oceana 6.

With these four wins and one loss Mr. Taylor and Mr. Tarrah think they had a very good season.

A Basket of Beauty

The Oceana girls team of 1951-52 succeeded in winning the County championship from Kempsville. The game which was played at Kempsville was close until the last few minutes when our forwards made several consecutive baskets. At the end of the season, the team lost one of their first string guards, Barbara Kernan, this being a drawback to the squad. Even with the loss of four of the first string from last year the girls gave everyone they played a fight. Doris Harcum led the forwards in scoring with Charlotte Scarborough coming in second. The guards led by Becky McCubbin did more than their share for each game.

The team appreciated the efforts and patience which their coach, Miss Joanne Sterling exhibited throughout the year.

Oceana Junior Varsity

The J. V. started out with some very good prospects this year although we were overcome by five teams, much to our regret. We can easily say that everybody was enthusiastic over the J. V.'s. Our first game was with the Academy who we wanted to beat very much, but they were a little too experienced for us. Our next game was with Creeds who we edged by two points. Everybody has their off nights. The next was another loss to Deep Creek. We are glad to say we won our next one with Great Bridge. That was the night one of their players made points for us. Next was Mathew Whaley, who we beat by four points. Kempsville edged us twice, but we put up a good fight. Next was a win in an overtime with Great Bridge. We went to Franklin and won by twelve points. The last but not the least was with Norfolk Academy who edged us by four points. Through the whole season we ended up with a 500 average for the season.

Varsity Basketball

The 1951-52 Basketball season started with 8 returning lettermen and a new boy, Paul McKinnon, who helped us very much. Donald Marshal took all scoring honors with 216 points.

The team ended up with a 6-4 in the conference. Everyone thinks that the team had a good season with a 11-9 for the complete season. The team had an average of 49 points per game and a total of 995 points.

"LEG STRETCHERS"

Those not appearing in picture are: Roger Miles, Julian McDaniels and Steve McDaniels.

This year the "Cavaliers" will be led by Julian McDaniels, Steve McDaniels, and Johnny McCloud in what we hope will be one of Oceana's best Track seasons in years. Last year all three of these boys went to the state track meet. Julian McDaniels scored second place in the 880, and Steve McDaniels came in fourth place in the high jump. Besides these two, who placed in state, we have Johnny McCloud, Royce Byrd, Terry McCall, Wilbur Snow, and Ed Mott who showed up very good last year. There are also a lot of new boys out this year, who we think will help the team very much.

Not Shown: Julian McDaniels and Steve McDaniels.

Senior Class History

In 1947, we the little eighth graders arrived at O. H. S., feeling very proud, thinking that we had gained enough knowledge to become a member of this high school, but unaware of what our fate would be. Somehow we acquired the name of the "Speed Demons," from our upper classmen. The very dignified seniors would walk nonchalantly through the halls, as we ran around trying to find our classes. This was an entirely new life for us, having a different teacher for each class, being assigned lockers, entering activities, filing and following a schedule and most of all finding a place for ourselves in high school.

That summer went by very fast, and there we were in our freshman year, wondering if we would ever become big seniors. We found high school much better that year for then we were considered high school students (and not merely the lowest form of humanity) (meaning the little eighth graders.) We were, however, then called rats, but we were allowed to take part in more activities, such as: the Newspaper, Glee Club, Dramatic Club, and a few made the basketball team.

We found ourselves back again the next year, only that time Sophomores. Our subjects were a little harder that year, but we worked hard trying to pull through, for we knew we had two busy years ahead.

Our Junior year we really began to sit up and take notice, for we were getting closer to our big goal. SENIOR'S. We soon found we had much to accomplish that year. Many of the boys and girls went all out for activities, some of our boys made varsity and some of the girls cheerleaders. The basketball team also played a big part. We raised money for our big Junior-Senior banquet from the Curtis magazine drive and our class won a radio for selling the most magazine subscriptions.

Then came the long awaited senior year, our last and final step, but somehow we get a lump in our throat at the thought of leaving old O. H. S. The day our senior rings came we were so happy that we went around showing them to everyone that came along. We were just as proud of our school as we were of our rings. It was hard at first to get accustomed to being the so called "dignified seniors," and set a good example for our under-classmen.

We found that the biggest problem this past year was putting our yearbook together, for which everyone did his share to make it our greatest success.

Our senior play was also a great success. Each person put his heart and soul into making it one of the best plays ever presented at O. H. S. But after the long drill of learning our parts we had to get down to work in order to pass our final exams.

The day finally came when we, the seniors, took over the school, for it was our class day. We had assembly during one of the morning classes and our slaves were there to greet us. We had a big time that day. All we had to do was click our fingers and our little slaves were at our command. Our caps and gowns came in use for the assembly but afterwards we only wore our caps to stand out among our other classmen.

After this we knew it wouldn't be long before the big moment because graduation day was drawing near. As we look back to our wonderful years in high school, we realize that they have been the best years of our lives, and as the years go by we will always remember our Alma Mata. "Oceana."

"Farewell Thoughts"

Our class has reached the top
We're finally about to depart
But instead of feeling happy
We leave with a heavy heart

One last look through the windows,
The staircase, and painted walls
Then we sigh, as the last good-bye
Echos through the silent halls

We climb the familiar staircase
To the rooms with chalk and books
And we stop at each in memory
While taking last-long looks

We imagine we hear voices
Relating a noun or a history date
We start to slowly walk away
But something seems to say "wait"

"Don't leave while you're feeling sad
And wishing you could stay,
Just remember, how you spent time here
Will reflect on a later day"

Then a familiar line runs through our minds
"You reap only what you've sown"
And this really seems important
When our future is so unknown

This school is just a stepping stone
And whether you fall in,
Depends greatly on the face
That you know how to lose and win

So as the class of '52
We'd like to say much more,
But just try to remember our advice
When you pass through this same door.

Mary Lee Ward

Prophecy of the Class of 1952

Between the waving banners and cheering crowd we'll try to take time to include you in our annual Ocean Bowl celebration of 1962. The bleachers are swarming with people and the weather is just perfect—no need for a heavy overcoat this year. But wait, you can't very well get in without a ticket, so as we stroll up to the ticket window we see none other than Kermit Land. Now wouldn't you know that wherever there is the sound of money you'll find Kermit not too far away. He tells us that his wife, Ann Toller Land, is here with their little son Kermit Simmons, Jr. Oops, now wouldn't that be just like me to drop the change. It's so nice of the man in the dark overcoat to help us look for it. Why, look who it is! It's the newly appointed Ambassador to Siberia, Billy Powell. When asked how he will like his new position, he gloomily answered, "since Barbara Norryce ran away with the new Toni Sales Manager, Wiley Harrell, I just want to get away from it all even if it means going a little to the extremes." Poor Billy, he was so faithful, too. Someone approaches us with a program, and if we didn't know better we'd think it was Roger Miles. This couldn't be Roger because he always had such a nice head of hair and this man is practically bald. Later we discover that it really is Roger who had mistakenly used household ammonia for a shampoo. He also tells us that his marriage to Carol Ratley is to take place next week. By the way, Carol has just come into the millions. That Roger always was a sly one.

Now as we approach the gate we notice a crowd gathering. It seems that Miss Mildred Godfrey, Tarzan's new leading lady has appeared with a lion cub on a leash. I remember seeing an advertisement for "Green's greasless grip" had cream which is very handy for swinging on vines, and I can't help but wonder what has happened to Faye Lee since she ran away with the circus. We also note that Donald Old is Miss Godfrey's new sarong designer. Wasn't he the quiet one, though? His elopement with Shirley Davis, trapeze artist, was kept a secret for days.

Upon entering we notice that the stadium is very much the same. We take our seats on the fifty yard line and as we are waiting for the festivities to start we decide to glance at our programs. This year they are sponsored by the new miracle drink "Hada Cola". It's very much like Coca Cola except the new element, Hada, discovered by Patsy Abernathy in Chemistry class years back, has been added. It is supposed to give you a zest for life, and since it has appeared on the market Patsy has retired. As the band begins with the "Star Spangled Banner", we hear the voice of none other than the former Miss Nita Aldridge, now Mrs. Perry Chambers. Mr. Chambers has resigned as Ace Exterminator and they have both decided to stay home and raise a few little termites of their own. The minister, the Reverend Al Smith, also newly elected president of the Temperance Union, takes his place and offers a short prayer. Mr. Joe Fail, the principal, steps up to introduce our guest speaker which is none other than Senator Horace Futrell. His wife, Gretchen Kime Futrell, is sitting close by to give him moral support. Somehow he still gets microphone fright.

After the Alma Mater, the Oceana Cavaliers run out onto the field and the crowd goes wild. They seem to be in tip-top shape, too. They are greatly favored in the game tonight over the Washington Red Skins. Coach Royce Byrd says this game will be a cinch to win. His wife, formerly Doris Harcum, says he hasn't broken training either. At least not if she could help it. But who can this be trailing behind the team in jeans, a bucket of water in one hand and a sponge in the other? As she gathers the boys in a huddle for some last minute instructions we notice that it is none other than Mary Lee Ward. Her life's ambition was to become a member of the team, too. Her rival, water-girl Lillian Booker, is giving her Indians a pep talk, also. It seems that these two-used-to-be friends haven't spoken to each other since a conversation was overheard on each other's party line. Mrs. Jones told Mrs. Brown that—well, you know how it goes.

At the half, the score is sixty seven to six in favor of the Cavaliers. It's really a close game. The band is ready to march on and as we stretch a little we glance around to notice who has been ringing cow bells in our ears. Why goodness, Shirley Brothers and Catherine Meeks are still peppy as ever. They became close friends soon after the triangle-love affair appeared in the "Lighthouse", now a large newspaper concern owned by Warren Brinkley. In Miss Peggy Wood's society page, Jimmy Barton lamp-shade tycoon, was linked many times in this triangle. Both girls loved and lost when Jimmy ran away with paper-bag heiress, Helen Jones. As the band approaches we notice nationally known Barbara Henley as the leading majorette. As she twirls her baton a catastrophe happens when her same nervous condition, "Synopsis of the Greaser" better known as sweaty paws, seizes her and the baton slips through her hands.

As the last quarter is nearing an end, we notice a handkerchief on a stick and we soon recognize our friend Bobby Bourdon as the owner. It seems that he has crawled under the fence to see the rest of the game and policeman Billy Bartee is having words with him. After Bobby explains who he is, "President of the Hobo Union", he is given a seat right behind the goal post. While glancing at the crowd we notice Ed Chester, well known editor of the monthly magazine "The Clarinet". He seems to be enjoying the game and why shouldn't he while sitting between "Jantzen Models" Callie Price and Vernon Pearce. Suddenly a swoon goes over the crowd as crooner Julian McDaniels walks by. He was voted as having the tonsils of the year. His wife, Anne Hollis, is in New York visiting friends, and Julian is his natural friendly self. There seems to be a disturbance down at the far end and we soon discover that one of the bleachers has given way under the strain. The announcement is made for a carpenter. Immediately one runs over and says he happens to have a hammer in his pocket for such occasions. Allen Culverhouse was always skilled in wood-work.

When the game is over with a score of ninety three to twelve we notice playboy playwright Wilbur Snow helping his wife for the fall season, movie—starlet Jean Tomlinson, into his green buick atomizer with yellow wheels. It seems that they married for publicity only and that Miss Tomlinson is still madly in love with stock car racer, Curtis Widgeon. He says that in his profession he hasn't time for women. Leaving in a cadillac supreme is the noted surgeon, Martha Burgess, who performed a delicate operation on mechanic Johnny McCloud whose life was hanging by a thread when he accidentally swallowed a carburetor. His wife, Ora Dail Hardy, was nearly frantic when the car wouldn't start, and Dr. Burgess saved the day.

We later learn that the crowd is going to the P & B Drive-In, formerly Williams and now owned by Joan Pruden and Sylvia Baggett. Their life-long search for a millionaire was in vain so they thought they'd try their luck at managing a business. As we drive up next to the last model T in existence, we see that the driver in the plaid beret is Charlie Whitehurst. No woman has been able to hook him yet but they say that Marilyn Benham, world-wide commentator sponsored by the Nonoco Standard Oil Company, has him worried. Her nightly broadcasts do keep her quite busy. A waitress comes skating over to our car and we recognize her as Betsy Nelson, retired star of the Roller Derby. She admits she still likes to keep in practice. A motor scooter rolls up and in one glance we know that it is wealthy Shirley Lee Schaeffer, soap opera queen. The scooter was a gift and at least it offers no parking problem.

After enjoying a barbecue cooked by Mr. Paul McKinnon himself we leave for the Legion where the Annual Ocean Bowl Ball is being held. We are sure to see many of our friends at this familiar spot. Upon arriving we'll have to admit that Hyman Harris looks well in his uniform with the gold braid. He is such a polite doorman, too. As we walk in, the band is striking up with another Johnson tune, "The Johnson Nag". Bob is still making millions on his song hit of the year, "The Shmoo Parade". It is said that his wife, Betty Sue Brown, has been the inspiration for many of his songs. Miss Mary Bowden, jingle contest winner is here in a coat of muskrat dyed mink, the jackpot prize. She is seen talking to Joy Reed, lady wrestler, a constant figure on TV, and Elsie Rice Medlin, blue ribboned winner for her needle-craft at the state fair. Mrs. Medlin is also the bread-winner for her family too since her husband, Herman, took up pool as a hobby. Miss Marigene Tatum, noted lecturer who is now wearing Tintair's newest shade, "cherry-vanilla", announces that we are about to hear the rippling rhythm of the "Sandbox Quarter" which consists of Betty "light-fingers" Gardner on the harp, Arlene "hot-rod" Myers on the drums, Joyce "lippy" Buchanan on the tuba, and Eleanor "swinging sway" on the sax. They played their rendition of the "Chicken-Coop Blues". Our star vocalist, Miss Nancy Malbon, sang "Together Again" which ended our gala affair. As we are handed our coats by "hat-check girl" Marilyn Luedke we know that our annual event has come to a close for another year.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being of sound body and weak mind, do make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament.

SECTION I:

To the Administration

Item I: To our School Board and Superintendent, we leave our sincerest sympathy and system of iron nerves in dealing with the jet problem.

Item II: To our principal we leave our sincere appreciation for his help in maintaining and developing a high school of which we will always be proud.

Item III: To our beloved faculty we leave great respect and thanks for guidance which they have given throughout the years.

SECTION II:

To the Classes

Item I: To the eighth grade we leave a friendly tip, "Start saving your pennies, Kids, cause the Junior-Senior banquet has a way of creeping up on you and catching you empty handed.

Item II: To the Freshmen we leave the ability to remain "fresh" as sophomores.

Item III: To the Sophomores we leave our newly founded demerit system along with a clean slate to start off with.

Item IV: To the Junior Class we leave our Privileges (?) and our trials and tribulations throughout the Senior year.

To the Juniors individually, we leave the following:

1. I, Bobbie Henley, leave my theory, "mind over matter" to Eugene Farrar which simply means "with no mind, it doesn't matter."
2. I, Herman Medlin, leave my new version of the Hucklebuck and two nimble feet to Dick Lockhart.
3. I, Joan Pruden, leave my ability to strut to Eva Lee Savage.
4. I, Wilbur Snow, leave my bright yellow pajamas to Margie Woolyhand providing she keeps them neatly cleaned and pressed.
5. I, Ora Dail Hardy, leave my "Moonlight over V. P. I. to Barbara Hitchings.
6. I, Horace Futrell, leave my way with the women and stale love notes from Gretchen to Tony Wadsworth.
7. I, Martha Burgess, leave my boisterous ways to Joanne Russell.
8. I, Catherine Meeks, leave "Them Thar Eyes" to Betty Jean Caton.
9. We, Perry Chambers and Nita Aldridge leave our romantic ways toward others to Stuart Chaplain and Shirley Curry in hopes that they will get together soon.
10. I, Wiley Harrell, leave my Toni Home Permanent Kit to Janice McDonald.
11. I, Nancy Malbon, leave my ability to make speeches in assembly to Janet Fentress.
12. I, Jimmy Barton leave—"Now how a-bout that?"
13. I, Doris Harcum, leave my ability to remain faithful to one boy to Frances Martin.
14. I, Billy Bartee, leave my winning smile to Dianne Taylor.
15. I, Helen Jones, leave my bicycle and two flat tires to Barbara Kernan hoping that this will make her the "Woman about town".
16. I, Roger Miles, leave the name and address of my barber to Joe Beck.
17. I, Gretchen Kime, leave my place in Home Ec class and my new recipe "Smashed Potatoes and corn on the cob" to J. D. Harley. (We'd also like to throw in the bicarbonate soda, ourselves.)
18. I, Mary Lee Ward, leave my mania for the Mexican hat dance to "Squirrley" Gresham in hopes that he'll have as much fun kicking shins as I did.
19. I, Shirley Brothers, leave a small token—The right front fender of the safety driving car to Betty Murden.
20. I, Kermit Land, leave my ability to splurge and tips on how to have a different girl every week to Louis Kitchen.
21. I, Joy Reed, leave my book on "Weight Lifting" to Denny Allen to that he may have those beautiful muscles the girls adore.
22. We, Billy Powell and Barbara Norryce leave our place in the drive-in theatre to Grace Vakos and Louis Voliva. By the way, the pop corn is awfully good, too.

23. I, Royce Byrd, leave my "fly by night attitude" and rhumba lessons to my fair feathered friend, Bentley Lackey.
24. I, Anne Toler, leave my golden voice and right index fingernail to Norma Gilbert. "You kin blev dat!"
25. I, Lillian Booker, leave my leotards to Ray Whitehead. We'd also like to throw in the ballet shoes as a special favor.
26. I, Al Smith, leave my tooth-pick legs which look like sucker sticks standing in boxing gloves to Albert Morecock.
27. I, Doris Tillette, leave my freckle cream to Ray Swindell.
28. I, Joe Fail leave my back seat on the basketball bus to Becky Maccubbin.
29. I, Arlene Myers, leave my wads of bubble gum neatly stuck under the library tables to Bill Perry providing he makes them last as long as I did.
30. I, Julian McDaniels, leave my green hair during football season to Wayne Jester.
31. I, Paul McKinnon, leave my "Crewey-Low hair cut" to Sidney Farrow so that he too may make a big hit with the girls.
32. I, Betty Jo Gardner, leave by ability to skip classes to Carolyn Meachum. I must admit, it does take a professional.
33. I, Edward Chester, leave Margie, my clarinet with this motto, "a little toot goes a long way".
34. I, Marilyn Benham, leave my parking place in Williams Drive-In to Cordelia Scott. Watch your weight, Cordelia.
35. I, Mary Bowden, leave my bag of Christmas cards to Sonny Williams.
36. I, Bob Johnson, leave my confederate hat and pipe to Johnny Strange. "The South's gonna rise again, you all."
37. I, Patsy Abernathy, leave my old cow Bess and my Siamese cat to Anastasia Themides. (We hope that Anna is an animal lover).
38. I, Allen Culverhouse, leave my winning campaign speech and soap box to Bobby Carleton.
39. I, Jean Tomlinson, leave my eye exercises to Irving Greenberg. Try and keep the women away then, Irv.
40. I, Sylvia Baggett, leave my silly gigue and southern drawl to Darlene Reed so O. H. S. won't get dull.
41. I, Mildred Godfrey, leave my red hair to Bobby Allen in hopes that it doesn't clash with his pink sweater.
42. I, Charles Whitehurst, leave my card-shark ability to Harry Smith. Old maid cards, that is.
43. I, Joyce Buchanan, leave my knack for collecting rings to Barbara Hoggard.
44. I, Warren Brinkley, leave my esquire calendar pin-ups to Ray Everton so that he too will enjoy going to the locker.
45. I, Betsy Nelson, leave my gym suit to Jerry Davis so that she too may own an original Sterling creation.
46. I, Carol Ratley, leave my ability to get a man lined up for the Junior-Senior, eight months in advance, to Dianne Newman.
47. I, Marilyn Ludke, leave my tips on writing love letters and a pack of simplex paper to Earl Hoggard. You'll find the lined paper easier to write on, Earl.
48. I, Peggy Wood, leave my ability to go steady to Nancy Gregg.
49. I, Donald Old, leave my slightly worn record, "Moving On" by Hank Snow to Audrey Hutsenpillar.
50. I, Vernon Pearce, leave Royce's locker and two lunch bags to Nicholas Themides.
51. I, Betty Sue Brown, leave my position in Fraziers and a 2nd hand typewriter to Peggy Bishop.
52. I, Marigene Tatom, leave my volumes of Shakespeare to Patsy Franklin.
53. I, Faye Lee Green, leave my lust for adventure and numerous blind dates to Marion Dudley.
54. I, Hyman Harris, leave my battle song "How're you gonna keep 'em down on the farm?" to Jimmy Darden so that he too may have that farm physique.
55. I, Johnny McCloud, leave my favorite pair of argyles to Joyce McCubbin.
56. I, Elsie Rice, leave my spare tire and a gallon of gas to Pat Sargent. (Elsie says she'd lend the Ford any night but Saturday.)
57. I, Shirley Davis, leave my desk in summer school to Edward Leigh.
58. I, Callie Price, leave my favorite typewriter in typing class, a genuine Woodstock, to Arnold Flippen.
59. I, Eleanor Smedley leave all the good times I had in November to Charlotte Scarborough.
60. I, Anne Hollis, leave my accent and pleasant thoughts of Burmuda to Doris Tillette.
61. I, Lee Schaeffer, leave my ability to graduate a year in advance to any Junior lucky enough to do so.
